CHANCELLOR'S

DOCTORAL

INCENTIVE PROGRAM

Commitment to Excellence with Diversity

The CSU Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program provides financial assistance to graduate students and is designed to increase the pool of individuals with the qualifications, motivation, and skills to teach the diverse student body in the California State University. It is a competitive program directed by the California State University but open to doctoral students at accredited universities across the country.

The CSU Chancellor's Doctoral Incentive Program offers loans to full-time students pursuing doctoral degrees who are interested in a teaching career at a CSU campus. Specifically, the program provides:

- Loans of up to $10,000 per year up to a total of $30,000
- Loan forgiveness: 20 percent of the loan is forgiven for each year of full-time postdoctoral teaching at a CSU campus
